3. Never use caps. This is the equivalent of yelling in the online world. It is not fun to read. Only use capital letters when appropriate.
4. Make sure that you are using appropriate grammar and structure. Do not use words, h_]v•š } (^ CE C) people in the class that may not understand this type of abbreviation, not to mention it does nothing to help expand your writing and vocabulary skills. Emoticons are fine as long as they are appropriate. As a smile, anything offensive is not.
5. Treat people the same as you would face (or kinder). It might be easy to hide behind the computer. In some cases, it empowers people to treat others in ways they would not in person. Remember there is a person behind the name on your screen. Deal with dignity and respect and you can expect that in return.
