Classroom Behavior: Students are expected to abide by the University's classroom behavior policy. In particular, the use of wireless telephony devices while the class is in session distracts the class from the lecture and/or discussion and should be turned off before the start of class. Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. Those who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with differences of race, culture, religion, politics, sexual orientation, gender, gender variance, and nationalities. Class rosters are provided to the instructor with the student's legal name. I will gladly honor your request to address you by an alternate name or gender pronoun. Please advise me of this preference within the first two weeks of the semester so that I may make appropriate changes to my records. See policies at <http://www.colorado.edu/policies/student-classroom-and-course-relatedbehavior>.

Religious Obligations: Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to deal reasonably and fairly with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. In this class, you are required to inform me of a scheduling conflict within the first two weeks of the semester so that I may make accommodations. See the full details of the University religious observances policy at <http://www.colorado.edu/policies/observance-religious-holidays-and-abscences-classes-andor-exams>.
