COURSE POLICIES (THINGS THAT AFFECT YOU)

LATE WORK: There's usually a week or more between when I publish the assignment and when it's due and I trust you to manage your time wisely and responsibly. If you miss a deadline for most assignments, you can still turn in your work within 3 days, you will receive a 5% grade penalty for each day it is late. Not the lowest assignment grade in each category (except exams) - you can miss a whole module and still be ok.

Any makeup work outside this window will need to be approved by me. The exceptions I may consider are sickness, university excused activities, religious, obligations, military service, or circumstances beyond the students' control. Please let me know as soon as possible. I reserve the sole right to determine what grounds constitutes a reasonable excuse for missing or submitting a late work assignment.

Please be aware that personal vacations, visits, work due in other courses, breaks, or travel delays are not acceptable excuses for late work.

vocabulary skills. Emoticons are fine if they are appropriate. Avoid anything offensive is not.

5. Treat people the same as you would face. In other words, it is easy to hide behind the computer. In some cases, it empowers people to treat others in ways they would not in person. Remember there is a person behind the name on your screen. Treat with dignity and respect and you can expect that in return.
6. Respect the time of others. This class is going to require you to work in groups. Learn to respect the time of others in your group and your experience will be much better. Always remember that you are not the only person with a busy schedule, Do not procrastinate! You may be one that works best with the pressures of the deadline looming on you, but others may not be the way. The same is true for the reverse. The key to a successful group is organization, communication, and a willingness to do what it takes to get it done.
